RELAZIONE SCIENTIFICA
RICHIESTA PER IL RILASCIO DEL TITOLO DI
“VISITING PROFESSOR” / RESEARCHER

Kadir Eryilmaz is an early career socio-legal scholar specializing in minority and human rights. Currently, he is registered as a PhD candidate at Martin Luther University, Faculty of Law, and working at the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Department of “Law and Anthropology.”

His PhD dissertation, titled “Legal Consciousness of Vulnerable Groups: The Case of Syriac Community”, focuses primarily on understanding the relations between the state, vulnerable groups, and their human rights with a bottom-up approach. In his research project, he studies how the Syriac community, a minority group in Germany originating from Turkey, engages with human rights law. His profile fits our department’s research focus.

Since Mr. Eryilmaz is in the last stage of his dissertation, a research stay at our Faculty between 15.03.2023 and 14.07.2023 under my supervision would immensely help him to develop his dissertation’s conclusion chapter. During his stay, he will continue writing his final chapter and prepare for his defense, in addition to participating in events organized by our doctoral program of ‘Dritti Umani: Evoluzione, Tutela e Limiti’ and connecting with the researchers in our department.

I would be grateful if Kadir Eryilmaz is granted a visiting position in our Faculty.

Sincerely,

Palermo, 1 marzo 2023
